

PROSCENIUM

Rules and Regulations

General Rules:

1. A debatable statement is to be presented a priori which should be duly argued for through the performance. If somebody wants to argue against the statement, then the statement should be presented in negative.
2. For the performance, English, Hindi and Kannada shall be considered as intelligible language of communication.
3. Number of members in a team must not exceed 10 and maximum number of accompanists per team must not exceed 3.
4. It's not necessary that all the members of a participating team are from the same institution. But one person must not participate in two different teams. Also, no further inclusion of people in a team shall be allowed following the submission for video-prelims.
5. Dramatic societies of different languages (mentioned above) but from same institution are allowed to participate in the event.

Rules of Video Prelim Auditions:

Theatre Competition:

1. The teams must register at the link provided in 'Pravega' webpage <http://pravega.org>
2. The video along with pictures of the team members, is to be uploaded in a separate google drive folder named in the format 'theatre/team-name/institution/city'. The corresponding link should be submitted and the folder must be shared with proscenium18@gmail.com
3. Maximum video length limit is 15 minutes. Though a maximum of 5 minutes extra time may be considered.
4. Video and audio quality should be as clear as possible. Illegible audio may lead to disqualification. Video quality should not be below 720p. No zooming, editing would be allowed.
(Note: All movements and expressions should be clearly visible in the video.)
5. A discussion about the act/script of the act should be uploaded along with the video in writing. If the script is adapted, then the source of adaptation must be mentioned. The discussion should also make note of all elements (viz. poetry, songs etc.) that may have been used in the performance and are not original.
6. Plagiarism in script is strictly prohibited and if detected, will lead to immediate disqualification. Judges' discretion in such matter would be final.